

FOR UNIVERSITY STAFF

WEEK COMMENCING 12 DECEMBER 2016

ISSUE NO 67

Congratulations to Professor Raj Thakker who has received funding from the Marshall Smith Syndrome Research Foundation for his project “Developing Mouse Models for Studying Pathogenesis and Pharmacological Clues In Marshal Smith Syndrome”.

SEMINARS

The Wednesday and Friday Seminar Series is not running this week. The next seminars will be in the New Year.

MEDICAL GRAND ROUNDS

No Medial Grand Rounds this week.

OCDEM CHRISTMAS LUNCH

A big thank you to Jon Hazlehurst for organising the OCDEM Christmas lunch which was held last Tuesday. It was definitely a great success with staff from all groups mingling with lots of laughter.

OCDEM FAMILY CHRISTMAS EVENT

On Saturday over 40 children attended the OCDEM Wizard of Oz Family Christmas Event. A big thank you to admins Mummy Mullins who is the brains behind these events, spending many months working on the theme and providing fantastic costumes for the cast.

INFO CAFÉ AREA DECORATIONS

Over the weekend elves appeared in the building and have decorated the Info Café Area with a Wizard of Oz Theme. The Wizard of Oz theme will be carried on at the OCDEM Family Event on Saturday at 2.30 – 5:00 and we believe that many of the characters will put in an appearance. The event is not just for staff with children and the Athena Swan team would love to see everyone there. Feel free to drop in for some food, mulled wine/soft drinks and Christmas cheer.

LETTERS TO SANTA CLAUS – LAST DAY OF POSTING

Just a wee reminder that today is the final post day for letters to Santa Claus. The Christmas Postbox is situated in the Info Café Area.
