

NDCLS Health & Safety Training Checklist

Training Course ($ recommended,  compulsory)	Who should attend?	Indicate date when completed or n/a if not applicable
Biological Safety & Genetic Modification	Laboratory staff involved with biological and/or genetic modification work
Biomedical Services Personal / Project Licence	Identified laboratory members of staff
COSHH	All laboratory staff
Dry ice safety	Identified laboratory members of staff
Eye protection eLearning 	All laboratory staff
Gas cylinder safety	Identified laboratory members of staff
Hazardous waste	All laboratory staff
Laboratory Animal Allergen (LAA) Awareness	Identified laboratory members of staff
Laser safety, an introduction	Identified laboratory members of staff
Liquid nitrogen safety (online course through Safety Office & locally run hands-on training)	Laboratory staff using cryogenic liquids
Manual Handling Awareness eLearning	Identified laboratory members of staff (and mandatory access to cryogenic facility)
Action Counters Terrorism $	All
Display Screen Equipment (DSE) Self-Assessment  (annual)	All
Equality and diversity 	All
Fieldwork and overseas travel risk assessment for Fieldworkers and travellers	All students, before arranging medium and high-risk travel / fieldwork / lab work off University premises (suitable for staff also)
Fire Safety Training  (every 2 years)	All
Harassment in Higher Education 	All
Health and Safety Basics eLearning 	All
Implicit bias in the workplace 	All
Information Security Awareness ( annual)	All
IRIS Reporting an incident	All
Manual Handling Awareness eLearning $	All
Recruitment and selection training	Anyone involved in recruitment (chairs and members of recruitment panels)
Research integrity training	All research staff and research students (with annual refresher)
Risk Assessment eLearning	All
DPhil Supervision at Oxford (Sciences)	DPhil supervisors
Fieldwork Supervisors Training; Core Module: Safe Fieldwork & Overseas Travel	Supervisors/those in a supervisory position or approving travel
Health & Safety Management for Supervisors and Line Managers	Supervisors/those in a supervisory position

Green: Laboratory staff and students

Yellow: All staff and students

Blue: Supervisors

Non-exhaustive list: additional training may be required depending on the role or techniques