

NDCLS Health & Safety Training

Training Course	Who should attend?
Autoclave Sterilization of Solids, Liquids and Biological Waste Seminar	Laboratory staff handling biological waste/using autoclaves
Biological Safety & Genetic Modification, an introduction	Laboratory staff involved with biological and/or genetic modification work
Cell Culture Techniques, Good Laboratory Practice & Use of Microbiological Safety Cabinets	Laboratory staff using with cell culture techniques and/or micro-biological safety cabinets
Chemical Safety and COSHH	All laboratory staff
Safe Use of Cryogenic Liquids (locally run training)	Laboratory staff using cryogenic liquids
Biomedical Services Personal/Project Licence	Identified laboratory members of staff
Display Screen Equipment (DSE) Self-Assessment Exercise (link available via http://www.admin.ox.ac.uk/safety/policy-statements/s8-09/)	All members of staff
Fire Safety Training (locally run training)	All members of staff
General Office Safety	All members of staff
Introduction to Manual Handling	All members of staff
Risk Assessment	All members of staff
Manual Handling Risk Assessment	Identified members of staff as appropriate
Supervisors' Responsibilities	Supervisors/those in a supervisory position who have day-to-day responsibility for managing or directing the work activities of others

Key
All members of staff and students
Laboratory staff
Supervisors/those in a supervisory position