Oxford Metabolic Health Is Looking For A Logo!

Do you have a flair for graphic design? If so, please help us find a logo for Oxford Metabolic Health that gives it a unique and eye-catching visual identity. For examples of logos used by other MSD networks see <https://www.medsci.ox.ac.uk/research/networks>. We'll launch the logo for OMH's inaugural symposium on 2 July and will use it on our website and for other activities. The winner will receive £130 of vouchers of their choice. Please send all images (preferably in jpeg format) to jane.itzhaki@medsci.ox.ac.uk by 30 April.

Prize Draw: Tickets To The Ashmolean's 'America's Cool Modernism' Exhibition

Cool modernism examines famous painters and photographers of the 1920's and 1930's with early works by Georgia O'Keeffe; photographs by Alfred Stieglitz, Paul Strand and Edward Weston; and cityscapes by Edward Hopper, many of the works have never before travelled outside the USA. For a chance to win a pair of tickets, please send your name and University contact details to staff.gateway@admin.ox.ac.uk by Friday 20 April.

University Management Training Opportunities

The University's professional development programme, Work > Learn > Develop, can offer funded training courses to University staff, by utilising the Apprenticeship Levy.

The following Management and Team Leading subjects available are:

Level 2 Team Leading - Ideal for someone with little or no prior experience in this area.

You'll likely be in a role providing support and guidance for others when their line manager is away and want to gain some underlying supervisory skills.

Level 3 Team Leader / Supervisor - This will suit someone who has some experience of supervising/leading staff/projects in their role. An opportunity to build on a basic knowledge and first line management skills.

Level 5 Departmental or Operations Manager - This will suit someone who is moving into or currently in a head of function/department type of role. They will have a good level of experience in either leading people or projects. An opportunity to build on strong underpinning knowledge of management and develop skills further.

Level 6 Chartered Manager Degree Apprenticeship - This will suit someone who is currently in or directly training for a management role. To study this they will need access to a variety of functions within their department or be in a middle management role. Ideal for someone looking to work towards a degree for the first time.

To find out more please come to our next Work > Learn > Develop Information Session on Monday 30 April at 1:30pm in Meeting Room 4 at Wellington Square.
