TRAINING

DOCUMENTS: START TO FINISH

Flaky word-processing skills will hold you back in any working environment, whether within the University or more widely. The IT Learning Centre's "Documents: Start To Finish" will equip you to design and manage complex documents efficiently. By using your word-processor skilfully, you will save yourself time and avoid frustration.

In one intensive event, over a day and a half, you will progress from "just muddling through" to taking full advantage of the range of power tools and advanced features that will make a real difference.
